Dear Sir Madam,

I am writing with thanks for the recent funding from FPSA which has allowed me to complete my recent Level 1 Theraplay Training in Sheffield. The four day course has given me skills to help teenagers through therapeutic intervention.

Theraplay is based on principles of attachment theory and works with the four dimensions of Challenge, Structure, Engagement and Nurture. I have also learned to administer the Marshak Intervention Method, which I will be able to use in my direct work with teenagers.

I found the course stimulating and very relevant to my area of work. Approximately half of my caseload are teenagers and the training has already allowed me to offer a deeper level of support to these young people and their families. I am therefore very grateful to The FPSA for the funding they have provided.

Yours Sincerely,

Ian Hutchinson
